

United States Senate

WASHINGTON, DC 20510

November 7, 2009

Dear Friends:

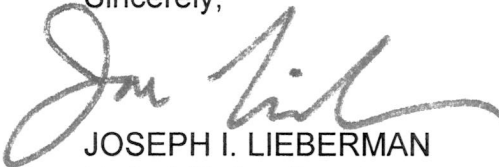

It is an honor and pleasure to extend my greetings to you and all of the participants of the 26th Annual Multicultural Business Youth Educational Services Embarkment (AMBYESE). This year's program, dedicated to the Xerox Foundation for their unwavering support, will certainly have a profound impact on the lives of college bound students.

AMBYESE has a most noble objective: to foster interest in education among students across the region in order to better prepare them for the dramatically changing work force. Over the last twenty-six years, this organization has made great strides in achieving this goal by encouraging students to strive for excellence in both the academic and personal arenas. Particularly in times of concern, the growth and vitality of our economy truly depends on our ability to produce an educated and well-trained work force. Your partnership with the Xerox Foundation, and their commitment to corporate social responsibility, will be vital to this cause. As a result, those students who have passed through the program are already beginning to utilize the skills learned at AMBYESE.

Our children are the most precious and valuable resource that our nation has to offer. AMBYESE gives them the opportunity to learn by example, alongside the partnership of the Xerox Foundation, and provides opportunities for our young people reach their fullest potential and give them a better chance at a brighter future.

As our nation enters an increasingly competitive global economy, the mission of AMBYESE becomes even more critical and I am confident that your leadership will lead to a better tomorrow for our nation's youth.

Sincerely,

JOSEPH I. LIEBERMAN
United States Senator

JIL:ap/jt